Driving & Walking Haboro

Haboro is a top shrimp producer but be sure to check out other kinds of local seafood! Fresh octopus, scallops and sea urchin are featured in the menus of many local restaurants. Haboro is also the ferry port for Teuri and Yagishiri islands.

Haboro coal mine relics
Kaneko Naokichi, head of large-scale conglomerate Suzuki mercantile, founded Haboro mine in 1939. Kami Haboro and Chikubetsu followed, and the 3 mines continued to produce high quality coal.
* Over time the buildings and walls of the mines have deteriorated making them extremely dangerous. Entrance is prohibited.

Roadside Rest Area Hotto Haboro (Haboro Onsen Sunset Plaza)
A seaside oasis with a beautiful sunset view. Haboro hot spring has large bathing pools and a rock-lined outdoor bath. Enjoy a bath while gazing at the Sea of Japan. Located adjacent to the Haboro Rose Garden and Hokkaido Seabird Center.

Haboro Museum
100 million year old fossils dating from the Cretaceous period, Jomon era artifacts and displays portraying the coal mining boom years can be viewed here.

Haboro Ferry Terminal
Catch a Haboro coastal ferry and head to Teuri and Yagishiri. These islands are home to 1 million seabirds and a primeval forest.

Hama no Kaachan Cafe
Enjoy a variety of meals featuring local fish and sashimi. The wives of island fishermen have put together a great menu! (open seasonally at the Haboro Ferry Terminal)

Haboro Tourist Information Center (inside Haboro Ferry Terminal)
open from April to August (closed in winter)

Engan Bus Haboro Terminal
We all love our cars but traveling by bus might be more relaxing. Leave travel within Rumoi sub-prefecture to Engan Bus. Be sure to get a Moekko open ticket with options for 1 day, 2 day or 2-day skip passes. Take your pass to the ferry terminal and get 10% off your ticket to the islands. You can purchase them at any of the Engan Bus offices.
